ST. PAUL (6/23/2014) – State Auditor Rebecca Otto today released the 2013 Local Government Lobbying Services Report. It is a comprehensive report which shows the expenditures by local governments and their associations for lobbyists and lobbying for calendar year 2013. The report is intended to inform Minnesota citizens and policymakers on the amount spent by their local governments on lobbying services.

Highlights from the report include:

- Local governments spent a total of $8,066,489 on lobbying activities in 2013. This represents an increase of $259,354, or 3.3 percent, over the amount spent on lobbying services in 2012.
- Eighty-four local governments (three more than in 2012) reported that they directly employed staff or hired contract lobbyists in 2013. These local governments spent a total of $3,853,075 on staff and contract lobbyists. This was $75,344, or 1.9 percent, less than in 2012.
- In addition to the $3.9 million paid directly to staff and contract lobbyists, local governments paid dues of $10,967,446 in 2013 to local government associations that also represented their interests before legislative, administrative, or other governmental bodies. These associations spent $4,213,414 on lobbyists and lobbying in 2013. This represents an increase of 8.6 percent over 2012. Of the $4.2 million spent on lobbyists and lobbying by these associations, $3,837,539 was funded exclusively through dues.
